FCHS Summer of '75

The cheerleaders and yell leaders worked toward a spirited year at camp during the summer. Top left — Varsity Cheerleaders posed at Kansas University: center front — Sandy Shouse captain; kneeling — Jim DeShazer, Joe McPherson, Sean Lesley, Joe Koening; standing — Sandra Burton; Susan Knoll; Jeff Fosset, Nabcy Moriarity, Karen Smither; on Jeff's shoulders — Kim Tillet. Top right — Junior

In August, the Flyer Marching Band travelled to Morehead University to prepare for the marching season. One of the highlights of the week was the initiation of new members.

several members waded on the beach. Bottom left, FCHS Girls' State Representatives Tami Patrick and Peggy Derryberry attended the workshop on state government at Morehead University. Bottom right, attending Boys' State at Eastern University were Joe McPherson, Tim Willard, David Merchant, Tom Penegor, Randall Farrell, Alan Letton, and Marvin Wiley.

Here We Go Again

Act I: First Day of School

Scene I: Curtain opens on FCHS right before the bell rings on the first day of school. The temperature is 95 degrees and climbing. The halls are filled with students, students, students, and more students.

Polinsky: Help! Help! Anybody!! Hey, you're Billy Greenberg, fantastic ping-pong player and good-looking hunk of bod, right?

Greenberg: Duh, yeah, That's me.

Polinsky: What do I do? My homeroom is 162. I can't find it!! (in near panic) Is it on the third floor with the swimming pool? I have my elevator passes, but I can't find that either!

Greenberg: Oh, all you do, see . . . is . . . Lemme think . . . Go up this hall to the back foyer and take a left about in the middle. You can't miss it. It is the big one with all the plush chairs. Hey, man, you got it made!

Polinsky: Great, thanks! Oh, do you know where I could get a study hall notebook?

Scene II: In Homeroom

Greenberg: Hey, Alfalfa I left some turkey sophomore waiting in the auditorium for her homeroom teacher! Ain't it a laugh? Hey, what is the matter with you?

Smith: I knew it. I knew I'd get Mrs. Crabapple for homeroom again. I won't make it! I hate when she gets her stop watch out and stands at the door for tardies. It drives me right up the wall! Wow, it's hot. What are they trying to do — boil us alive? This is no time for school.

Greenberg: (Holding a paper) I hate these forms. My own Mother doesn't even know when my brothers' and sisters' birthdays are. Why does the school need to know?

Smith: Hey, what's this? School rules? School rules??? NO SMOKING??? I'm having nicotine fits already.

Greenberg: This is a trip, man.

(Bell rings; students pick up the 13 forms for their parents to fill out)

Smith: Whew! It's about time. I thought that desk had become permanently glued to my body!

Greenberg: Yeah. I've about decided it's too early for school. I'm taking the day off tomorrow and going out to the creek.

Wanna come?

Act II: Football Homecoming 1975
Scene I: Spirit Week
The week of homecoming events begin October 6. Students and faculty alike are caught up in the fever of anticipation. Signmaking, singing, and dancing seem to replace the routine schedule of school life.

Polinsky: Did you hear Mr. Hoaglby this morning on announcements? "Please classrooms all in attention your have I may?" Here it is only the second month of school and he's already in need of a vacation.

Smith: Polinsky, don't you ever know what's going on? This is YAD SDRAWLCAB! Everything is backwards! Walking, talking, . . . it's all backwards!

Polinsky: Oh, I get it! Tomorrow is going to be "Jeans & Jersey Day". Wednesday will be "Crazy Hat & Socks Day", and Thursday will be "Farmer Day". Does that mean that Friday will be My day?

Smith: You sophomores! Always goofing off. Of course not. Friday will be "Pluck the Cardinal Day". The girls all have one paper feather. The guys try to get them to give an affirmative response. When they do, the guys get the feathers. Then, the guy with the most feathers at the end of the day will be declared "the guy the girls couldn't say no to".

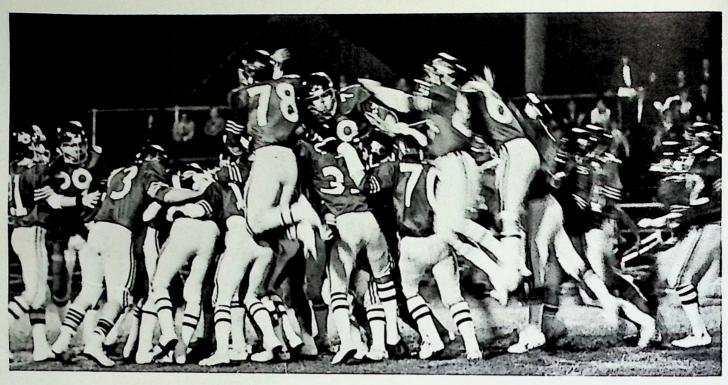

Polinsky: Wow! I bet Gary Bogdon wins. (He did, too!)

Scene II: Football Game

It's 8:00 p.m., October 10 at FCHS' football field. Constant rain has played havoc with the field earlier in the day. The stands are full of cheering fans as they await the start of the game.

(Bandroom)

Flipper: Mr. Brewser, I can't do this new formation. The field looks alright to me. We practiced all week for this game.

Brewser: Look, Flipper. Do you want the team to win tonight?

Flipper: Yeah!

Brewser: Do you want to have fun at the dance, later?

Flipper: Sure!

Brewser: Do you want that tuba wrapped around your waist . . .

permanently?

Flipper: Ah . . . Mr. Brewser, this is a really good idea. We need to do something else because of the muddy field.

(Field)

Climb: Alright guys — let's go! (pause) Move it! (to himself) I hope this muddy field will be to our advantage.

(Time passes)

Announcer: The buzzer has sounded, ending the first half. The score-Franklin Co. Flyers O, Scott Co. Cardinals O. The 1975 Flyer Band welcomes you to Homecoming '75.

(Homecoming Court walks onto the field)

Polinsky: Well, I think they all deserve to be crowned queen. I wonder who'll get it? Of course, if I was down there, we all know who would win.

Smith: Yeah! The referee!

Announcer: The 1975 Homecoming Queen is . . . Annette Ray.

Greenberg: Boy, I bet all of those other girls are glad that's over. It's too bad that Sandra (Burton), Cindy (Claxton), and Gwen (Hart) couldn't win, too.

(Players back on the field)

Climb: We're gonna get 'em guys! This is our game! We want it more than they do!

(Back to the stands)

Polinsky: Fourth quarter - 7 to 0.

Boy, if we can just hold on.

Smith: Look at those Cardinals! They're going to get a touchdown!

Polinsky: We've got to win this one! A fumble!

Get it — Campassi's got it! Go-go-go . . .

Announcer: Campassi recovers a fumble on the 18 yard line and scores.

Polinsky: We won! 14-0!

Scene III: Homecoming Dance

The cafeteria is decorated like a circus tent. The chairs and tables are pulled to the side to make room for the dance.

Flipper: This place really looks good! Where are the animals with our names on them? I paid a whole quarter for a tiger, just so Sue could see her name in print.

Greenberg: Well, it looks like everybody is here. Who's the band? They are really gettin' it on.

Polinsky: That's Crushed Velvet. They really sound great. Why isn't anybody dancing?

Flipper: Well, let's start. Somebody has to be first.

(Later, on the dance floor)

Flipper: Ya know, whoever came up with this theme, "Under the Big Top", really had a good idea . . . too bad I was in the restroom when they let the balloons down.

Polinsky: You're always in the restroom. I bet you even missed those teachers that were dancing, Flipper: You mean there are teachers who would boogie at a high school dance?

Polinsky: I didn't say that they "boogied".

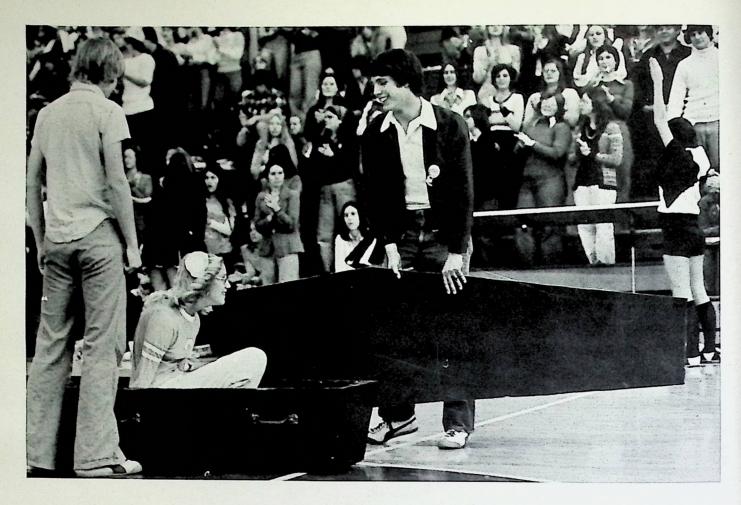

Act III: Pep Rallies

Scene I: Curtain opens on pandamonium in FCHS gym. Students and faculty alike, are on their feet, clapping and yelling for the next victory.

Wellington: Let's see who can win the victory stick! OK — sophomores, first! — juniors, then seniors!!

Cheerleaders: O - K . . . v-i-c-t-o-r-y. That's the sophomore battle cry.

Wellington: SOPHOMORES — Where were you? We can't hear you down here! (Bleachers)

Polinsky: What do you mean, where are you?

Where do you think we are, in the parking lot?
Flipper: How can I yell for the junior class with this tuba stuck in my face?

Pep Rallies

Greenberg: Dah . . . which way to the goalpost coach?

Wilhurt: Think boy! Go straight through the two yard-markers at the end of the field . . . closest to you.

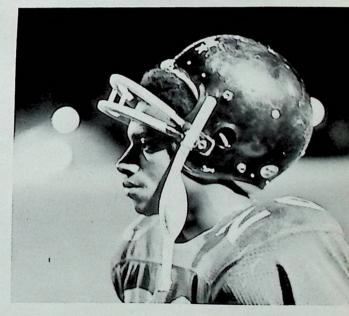

Greenberg: Dah . . . but coach, how can I go through the yard-markers, they're made of metal?

Wilhurt: Let me put it another way
— GO BETWEEN THEM. (Greenberg starts to go onto the field to give the rest of the guys the word.) Wait Greenberg — when you go between the markers, make sure you are carrying the ball!

Greenberg: Dah . . . gotcha coach. (The ball is snapped — TOUCH-DOWN!)

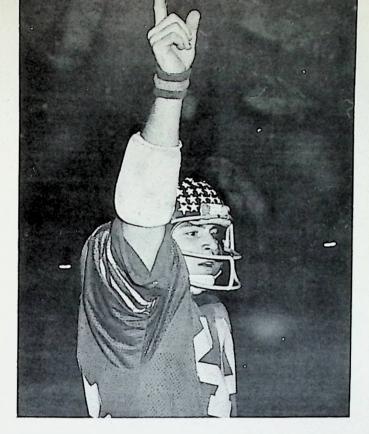

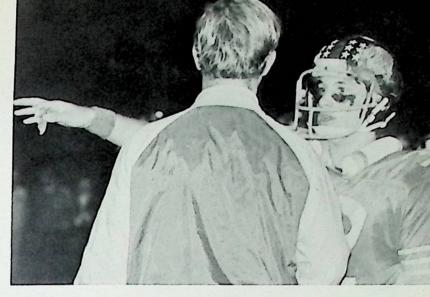

The page, top -This year the football team had six seniors on the team, and oddly enough all six (and only these six from FCHS) were named to the 1975 All-Mid-State Conference. They are Mike Howard, (l-r)Mike May, Pat Freudenthal, Jeff Bibb. David Merchant, and Larry Campassi. Bottom — Two seniors, Pat Freudenthal and Larry Campassi, were given the honor of being named to the All-State Team. P. Freudenthal made 3rd string, and L. Campassi was placed on the first string team. Opposite page, the senior players, top (I-r) Mike May was a tight end, defensive end and punter. David Merchant held position of tight end and cornerback. Middle (I-r) Jeff Bibb played the positions of quarterback and defensive back. Mike Howard was fullback, quarterback, and cornerback. Bottom (Ir) Larry Campassi maintained position of flanker. Pat Freudenthal blocked hard as a defensive tackle and offensive guard.

Polinsky: Push 'em back! Push 'em back! W-A-Y back!

Boy, I'd rather push them over!
Flipper: Well, that's the only way you'll get somebody to notice you — if he can't get up and run!

Polinsky: Very funny! You're just jealous because you didn't make the team.

Flipper: I am not! I've got my tuba; what more do I need?

Opposite page, top — The Starting Offense takes their place on the field. Middle — The Starting Defense can really stop the action. Bottom — Jerry Wilhoite and Gary Taylor make plans for the team. Scene III: Bleachers are filled with frantic fans. They clap! They stomp! They scream! They boo the referee!

Smith: Sue, is that a new sweater? It really looks great!

Polinsky: Thanks! See the cheerleader in the middle? Well, she has one just like this. She bought hers at Babe's Boutique — I bought mine at Dudley's Discount!

Smith: Well, that's a pretty good deal, Sue — But if you want to get that male cheerleader to notice you, you need to get a new uniform like those J.V.'s have. Wow, they are something else!

Flipper: Why don't you quit yacking and start yelling? After all, those cheerleaders are number one in the nation! Show a little enthusiasm.

Polinsky: I'm enthused! I'm enthused! I'm enthused about those male cheerleaders!

J.V. Cheerleaders

ERPUFF

Scene III: Girls are chasing each other all over the football field. Wild passes, screams of anxiety, and jumps for joy are only part of the excitement.

Greenberg: Don't you remember anything we practiced? Why aren't you staying in that wing-formation? Quit looking at your boyfriend and watch the ball! The next time it hits you, I'm putting in a second-stringer!

Polinsky: I'm trying. I can't stay in a wing, I don't even know where the rest of the bird is! Please, I'll really straighten up! Can I ask you one question before I go out there and make a touchdown?

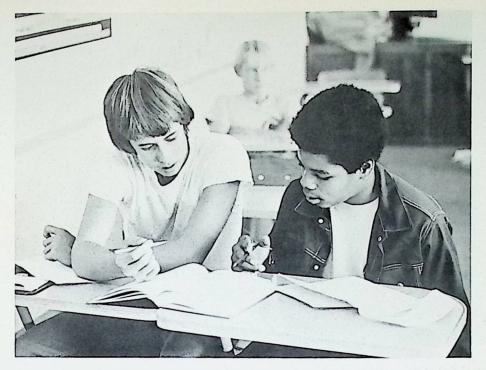

Which one of those fences is ours?

Greenberg: Oh, brother! Sit down,

Polinsky: I'm pulling you out now!

Act VI: Happening

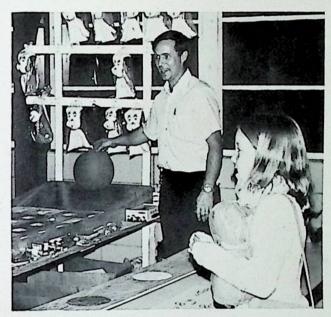

Scene I: It's November 22, and FCHS has been transformed from the "old" High to a giant festival of booths, food, and friends.

Smith: I've never seen so many people in this foyer! With all these people here, wouldn't you know I couldn't find any of my gang!

Flipper: Hey, Alf! Hey! Man, do you believe this place? There must be a million people here!

Smith: Good! I was beginning to think I was the only one here. Let's get moving! I can't wait to spend this money!

Vocational School

Many students found that their interests were better fulfilled at the vocational school. Under co-ordinator James Zoll, students aged sixteen and older could participate in fifteen varied courses. Such activities as welding, marketing, machine shop, and type setting offered the student a "technical" education.

Varsity Tries Harder

The 1975-76 basketball season started out as a rebuilding year, but as the season progressed, the team improved to become a veteran ball club. With a combination of hard work and enthusiasum, the varsity members carried on the competative spirit which has become a tradition of the Flyer Basketball Team. Although this was not considered a winning season, it must be remembered that not only did they play the best teams in the state, but they never lost their drive for the goal.

Black History Assembly

"The Ten Most Influential Blacks of 200 Years" was the Bicentennial theme given to the Black History assembly on March 16. Daryl Smith portrayed Richard Allen, the preacher that founded the Methodist Church. There was also a scene in which Alan Letton played the role of Martin Luther King. Some of the other famous people portrayed were: Harriet Tubman, George Washington Carver, and the debate between W.E.B. DeBois and Booker T. Washington.

Once again the cafeteria was disguised; this time, on January 30, as "The Fantastic Flyer Machine". Painted robots, wearing the numbers of the players, covered the walls. The back wall resembled a gum ball machine, with couples' names printed in glitter on the "candy". Copperfield supplied the music for the Homecoming dance, playing both hard rock and slow tunes.

Dancing was a lot of fun, but some found it necessary to take a breather for a quick thirst quencher. Jeff Fossett seems to be a little leary about the money he just received at the concession stand.

Finney's Females

After only three years Coach Nancy Finney succeeded in pulling together a winning girls basketball team. The girls did not just play ball, they fought hard in the excitement of close games. After the completion of a winning season, the girls were honored at an Awards Banquet in March.

I Love You Day

In January the Student Council once again sponsored the "I Love You Day" assembly. The purpose of this assembly was to create a closer relationship among all students and faculty. In a time of international turmoil, it was nice to take just one day to recognize that our fellow man was not really so bad.

Supt. Bondurant Retires

Ray Bondurant has played the roles of student, teacher, principal, and superintendent in the Franklin County School System. Upon graduation from Peaks Mill High School, he attended Western, where he received his BS, and later went on to the University of Kentucky, receiving his MA.

His teaching career began in the junior high, though eventually he taught science courses in the high school. Later he held the position of principal at both Bald Knob and Bridgeport. In 1960 he took his post as superintendent of the enitre system.

As with any superintendent, Mr. Bondurant's chief concern was with the students. From the beginning of his career until 1976, the student population more than tripled. As a result, six new schools were built. This was one of the many accomplishments in which he takes pride. But even more than this, he spoke proudly of the fact that this system had the first junior high in Kentucky to utilize the "open space" concept of teaching. "As times go on, we're going to have to change in order to keep up. So far I think we've done that."

On June 1, 1976, Roy Bondurant left the Franklin County School System. Upon his retirement he said, "I look forward to leaving the system with mixed emotions. I will always be interested and concerned; it has become a part of me."

ve in Wonderland

As tradition has it, the FCHS Band once again sponsored the Valentines Dance; needless to say, it was very successful. Not only did this dance have the largest crowd of any this year, but everyone there seemed to be in agreement that the band, B.W. Cat, was one of the best they had ever heard. The dance was held February 20.

Featured in this year's theme, "Love in Wonderland," were a number of the most popular and loved characters of all time and by all ages, such as Mickey Mouse and Jimminey Cricket. Another highlight was seeing band director Tom Brawner display one of his many talents - dancing?

Both pages, top (I-r) — Susan Knoll and Lucy Stanley try to get the decorations in order. The Valentine King and Queen Court poses for the traditional picture. Bottom (I-r) — Some of the guys add a finishing touch for the dance. Kim Karsner draws one of the "One Hundred and One Dalmations." Sheila Bottoms and David Brown seem to be happy — wouldn't you be if you had just been crowned Valentine Queen and King, along with winning a free trip to Florida with the band?

Clockwise from top right — Mr. Roach relaxes with aid of Kathy Roberts, after a hard day. Bob Fisher gets involved as Head Delegate of Yemen. The Washington Monument and the Jefferson Memorial were among the sites visited. This tired crew is almost home.

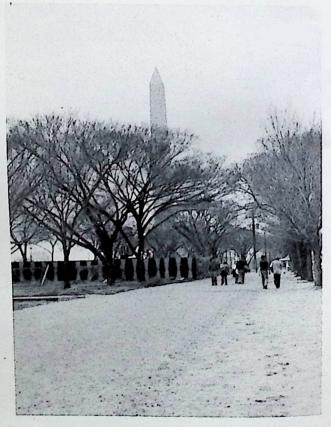

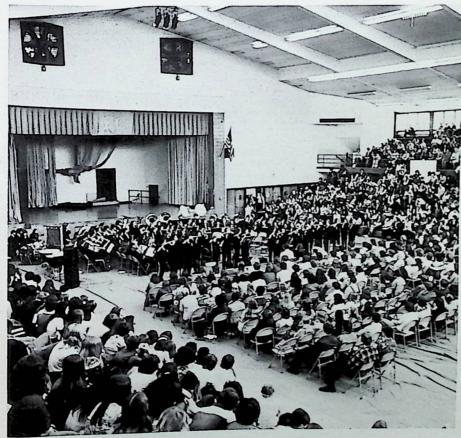

Although somewere fighting off the effects of the flu, the 19 students and four chaperones that attended the North American Model United Nations in Washington, D.C. this year, grew both culturally and intellectually. They participated in a Mock U.N. where they learned more of how the real United Nations operates, along with touring the numerous sites of Washington. (They even saw some famous people.) They left Frankfort on February 14 and returned on the 23rd.

Band Performs in Assembly

On March 1, the band performed before the student body for their annual school concert. G.B. Day (top left) was just one of the many talented band members to be featured in a solo during the assembly. Tom Brawner (bottom right) lead the band through such selections as Sol Y Sombre, Chorale and Shaker Dance, and Broadway Show-Stoppers.

Girls Track & Cross Country

Even though regularly scheduled meets didn't begin until March, several track team members were able to participate in the indoor Mason-Dixon games in February. This was due to the number of returnees from last year's team, which captured the Regional title, the Mid-State championship, and tied for fourth in State competition.

The '75 cross country team was defeated only one time. It won the Bath County Invitational and the Owensboro Invitational. The girls' effort was not to be curbed. They continued their winning streak by taking the Region, the Mid-State, and by finally seizing the Class AA State Championship.

The boys track team had to work hard this year in order to keep up with the successful record of last year's team. Wayne Skelton led the team as captain with a winning record in the one and two mile run. The team depended strongly upon Roger Clay for speed; Melvin and DeWayne Brownlee worked hard in the long and high-jump events. Tommy Wise and Randy Givens ran the hurdles, while Pat Freudenthal, Tommy Smith and Clay Thurman threw the discus. Many new boys helped the team maintain its high record, with the aide of Coach Jerry Wilhoite.

It's Illegal to Pinch

Experience has been the major difference in this year's wrestling team. Even though this was only the second year FCHS had participated in this sport, their season was very successful with a 14-9-1 record. The entire squad placed second in the Frankfort Invitational Tournament in December. They were also individually strong, as Pat Freudenthal and Richard Hayden won their classes in the Harrison Invitational Tournament, and Tim Monroe placed first in his class at the Woodford County Tournament.

Leading this year's team were Captains Pat Freudenthal and David McMurtry. Jerry Wilhoite took on the responsibilities of coaching the 1975-76 Wrestling Team.

Girls Tennis . . .

Last year, the Girl's Tennis Team had a very successful season. They won the Mid-State Tournament; both singles and doubles. Despite bad weather, which caused a large number of matches to be rained out, the Girl's Tennis Team netted a winning season with a 5-3 record. This year, two of last year's top eight players returned. They, along with the rest of the team, ranked among the top teams in the state. Diane Pulliam, head tennis coach, scheduled three to four matches a week, and again was confident that the team would take the Mid-State Conference.

The Thrill of Victory . . .

The 1975 Boy's Tennis Team experienced the thrill of victory by capturing the Bourbon County Invitational and was ranked second in the Mid-State Conference. Its excellent victories apparently served as an inspiration for this year's team which emerged having completed a smashing season. Coach Terry Johnson scheduled thirty matches including a weekend trip to Ohio where they played Cincinnati Western Hills and Cincinnati Walnut Hills.

Long hours of practice and a winning spirit were the things that made the Franklin County Swim Team distinguished. Every year the team has placed very high in the State Tournament, where they compete against 32 "AA" teams.

The 18 swimmers, lead by captains Randall Farrell and Julie Rougeax, participated in 14 meets, and those that qualified attended the YMCA Nationals in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Coaching this year's team for the fourth year was Donald Sturgeon.

With last year's team ending the season with a 9-1 record, the '76 team has their work cut-out for them. They've got to keep that winning streak.

Individually, the boy's '75 golf team was strong. Tim Willard competed in the State Tournament, and John Hicks was a medalist in the Mid-State. Last year's team record was 12-6.

The team competed in five meets and finished no worse than second at any time. They performed before one home football game, and displayed their talent before two home basketball crowds during halftime. Helen Tipton acts as coach and sponsor of the Gymnastic Team, along with Bob Gilbertson.

A winning ball club has become more than just a tradition with the Flyer Baseball Team since Bill Crumbaugh (preceding page, top) took over the position of head coach. During the past five years, the Flyers have compiled an overall record of 111 wins and 39 losses. They have won three District Championships, two Mid-State Conference Championships, and placed second in the Regional Tournament one year. The 1974-75 baseball squad won 26 games and lost only four.

This year's squad was destined to be a good one from the beginning. A large number of full-time starters returned from last year's team. Rounding out the team were the other members, including part-time starters and a number of outstanding ball players from the junior highs.

Climaxing the season this year was a nine-day trip through Florida and Georgia during spring break. The team played games at such cities as Fort Valley, Tampa, Clearwater, and St. Petersburg. A day of rest (?) was spent touring Disneyworld.

"Hustle"

The Pep Club "hustled" all year to raise the spirit of both students and faculty. Pep rallies, the "rock-a-thon" at the Happening, spirit weeks before Homecoming, and painting the rails on the football field were only some of the ways that Koenig and his clan moved on!

Spreading the magic of their paint-brushes all over town, the Art Club once again painted Christmas scenes at Frisches, and for the first time, they painted the windows at Baskin-Robbins. The artists helped to build enthusiasm by making posters and signs for pep rallies throughout the year.

"The Moves of a King"

The F.C.H.S. Chess Club was a newly formed group of young people. Membership only required a desire to play chess. Some joined in order to learn the game, while others were more experienced. Greg Hoffman served as president and Bobby Scott was vice-president. Being that Hoffman was the most experienced player, he represented the club in the Kentucky High School Chess Championship Tournament in January. The group attended other schools to participate in tournaments, and also sponsored one of their own.

"The Club That Wouldn't Die"

After a two-year absence, the Science Club once again made the scene at FCHS. Members of the club were allowed to participate in field trips to interesting places such as Mammoth Cave, Cincinnati Zoo and Historical Society, and the Oakland Museum of Atomic Energy. A county-wide science fair, open to all students in either elementary or secondary school, was sponsored by the club.

The officers of the Science Club (I-r) Jan Shoemaker, Secretary; Bob Myers, Vice-President; Karen Harrod, President; and Jan Hieatt, Treasurer/Reporter.

"The Other Side of the Bookcase"

Members of the Library Club and the Library Aides were constantly setting the shelves straight. Some of them found their way behind the desk and checked out books for other FCHS students. The librarians were not only able to run the main library more efficiently, but were also able to keep up with the large collection of magazines. Another one of these students' duties was helping with the Audio Visual equipment.

Mu Alpha Theta is an honorary math organization composed of third and fourth year math students. An over-all B average is a must for anyone seeking an invitation.

Members of the club were instrumental in the organization of a computer programing class here. The semester course introduced students to the intricate workings of the computer.

Members of the FBLA volunteered their services to the March of Dimes. They assembled packets for the Mothers' March and manned telephones for the Tel-athon January 10 and 11. In conjunction with this project, they held a walk-a-thon to raise money of their own to donate to the foundation. The officers anxiously helped the members plan for the Southern Regional Conference in Gattlinburg in November. They also led the group in their major fund raising endeavor, selling Tom Wats showcase items. Those pictured below helped the club tremendously by selling at least $50.00 worth of merchandise.

Uniqueness was the word to describe the 1975-76 FCHS Chapter of FFA for they were, and will be in the future, one of the few chapters in the nation who were self-supporting. They did this by planting, housing, stripping, and selling their own crop of tobacco. Another project which began this year, was publishing their own magazine. Jeff Noel was editor, in charge of collecting and getting out all articles and pictures in this magazine for farmers in the Franklin County area.

The FFA was a club very much on the "go" during the year, being as they attend such events as the National Convention in Kansas City, the State Convention, and FFA Camp during the summer months.

"Smiles"

Students involved in DECA launched a variety of things in relation to business. One of the areas dealt with was courtesy and "smiles" for the customers. Other topics focused on the practical aspects of the retail trade.

"Let's Do It Again"

The BIRD Staff was once again able to publish several issues of the student newspaper. Again, and again, students were called upon to write articles, poems, editorials, and to make use of their organizational know-how. Sponsored by the Student Council, the BIRD rapidly became a paper the students anxiously awaited.

"Three Days of the Deadline"

The "deadline" was the most important thing to the Falcon Staff. Putting out the school page in the State Jounal every week proved to be an experience, at the very least. In an effort to bring the school and community closer together, staffers focused on activities at F.C.H.S.

"Sunshine Girls"

Juniorettes, a girls' service organization sponsored by the Heritage Women's Club, was able to bring a little bit of happiness into the lives of some of the residents of Franklin County. Members of the Key Club served the school through many activities such as parking cars, cleaning the football field after each game, and supplying the health room. They continued to raise funds for the United Way and the Kidney Foundation. Key clubbers raked leaves, stripped tobacco, passed out Inaugural Programs, cleaned up the Glenn Willis Estate, and still saved time for a little social life through banquets and dances.

Bottom — Key Club members and advisors pose in the traditional "K" formation.

"Hard Times"

As usual, the Student Council proved to be one of the most active organizations in the school. One of its main service projects involved having students volunteer their time as workers for residents in Frankfort, and then to denote their "pay" to a charity. The Happening, sponsored by the Student Council, helped bring the school and community a little closer. The idea of intramural sports had been tossed around for a while, but it took the Council to actually get it set-up. Other activities, such as pep rallies, assemblies, and College Night, were also under the sponsorship of the Council.

Middle (I-r) Council officers (I-r) Ernie Sampson, president; Lee Willis, treasurer; Paula Johnson, secretary; and Joe McPherson, vice-president, seem to be resting up for what could be a hectic meeting. Ken Buchanan contemplates the motion before he makes a decision. Tony Lukjan seems to be slightly amused at what he hears. Wonder if it is the financial statement? Typical Council meeting makes use of audio-visual aids in explaining specific motions on the floor.

Entertainment was provided all year by the 1975-76 Flyer Band under the direction of Tom Brawner and Rick Moreno. They began their practice for marching season at Band Camp in August. After a week of sweat, they were ready to come home for more practice before the first home game. Once school started, they practiced playing and "pointing their toes" just about every night for two hours. Not only did they march in all the home games, and attend U.K. Band Day, but the members also were given a superior rating in the Marching Band Festival at Morehead University. The Concert Band began practicing immediately after marching season ended. They gave a Winter Concert in December, and participated in the Bicentennial Concert with Shelby and Anderson County. The musicians also attended the KMEA Marching Festival in Lexington. This year the band took a trip to Disney World in Florida during Spring Break.

Beta members were on the go the entire year. In October, District of Kentucky Beta Club was formed and Joe McPherson was elected president.

A large number of students attended State Convention where they campaigned for Dana Graves for vice-president. They were also active in such events as the Happening, Witch Contest, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus Contest, and pom-pom sales.

At the end of the year there was a banquet to

"Once is Not Enough"

Top to bottom — Department Head Carol Carpenter, sponsors Student Council Majorettes, Junior Class. Charlote H. Stagner. Halcyone Holt. Marjorie Record.

A very tender and heartwarming story showing the relationship of young students and their English teachers. This is best exemplified in the following conversation taken from the movie:

- Student: "But Mrs. Carpenter, I did capitalize it once."

- Teacher: "I know dear, but once is not enough." Rated R.

Critic's Comment: A symbolic dramatization of the often adlibbed relationship between the student and the English teacher. Constant assonance and alliteration are used to bluff the audience into believing that the actors really know what's going on.

Well, all I can say is, symbolic or not, once is more than enough.

"They Shoot Horses, Don't They?"

At this time in life it was important to the students of fine arts to get their "superiors". They were pushed from the very beginning of the year. Shouts could be heard from Tom Brawner and Rick Moreno, as the band students began to slack off, "Where's your DRIVE?", "Pick up your feet!" And when the students of chorus went flat, you could hear Jo Ann Jenkins screaming, "Drop your jaw!" Push, push they can't stop now, if they want to get that "superior". The only break they got was when Floyd Bryant gave them the chance to express their individuality through art. But still, they mostly wanted to be number one — and they can't stop now. But then again, they shoot horses, don't they? Rated PG.

Critic's Comment: A movie which really exemplifies the way people live now. The total expression of it is "really fine".

"JAWS"

The story of a chilling incident which occurred in a small biology lab one fall. Added to the list of things to disect was a shark. The "great white shark" measuring 24 inches in length and weighing in at 4 pounds ended up terrorizing not only the Advanced Biology Class, but some of the teachers as well. As you will see, only one teacher is brave enough to handle "the great white shark". Rated PG may be to intense for smaller children.
Critics Comment: "A little too much gore when some of the shark's guts are spilled."

"How to Succeed in Business....

... Without Really Trying"

A witty film showing the ordinary person how to achieve by any means possible-training, ability, dedication-anything you say. Rated PG.

Critics Comment: "An occasional slip of the tongue but overall it was quite comical."

"Wings"

A movie set out at the ends of the halls of FCHS — the "Wings". There is a lot of sentimental, tear-jerking stuff to endure (namely the peeling of onions). But the sight of students building wooden furniture, hanging tobacco, and sewing are breathtaking; and the lecturing pace never lets up. With Cleota Bolling, Tony Shirley, and Jane Kelly in overseeing roles that made them stars! Unrated.

Critics Comment: "A movie geered to the practical art of living."

Knowing "THE TEST" is coming up, the students are faced with what could be one of the most important wars of their lives. So the battle plans are laid out - the first five days will be used for general memorization. There are 100 pages of notes to learn so they must take 20 per day. The next move is background reading; and finally, getting it together in your mind. Then comes the counterattack - the big question! So for one hour the struggle is on. Afterwards there is a long period of discussion and the curve for the grades is set; at long last peace has been established. But once again in the not so distant future the students will be confronted by "THE TEST". Rated R.

Critic's Comment: "A film which really hits home. Except for one gutter expletive, could be

"The French Connection

Trying to uncover a circle of Foreign Language Dictionary thieves, Terry "The Magnificent" Johnson has his work cut out for him. An action-filled story unfolds as Terry races against death to uncover clues, to discover who is the head of this ring could it be the handsome and charming German teacher, Herr Schenck, or the business-minded Spanish teacher, Senora "Mamaciter" Weddington, or maybe the sweet, unsuspicious Senora Lockyer? Rated R.

Critic's Comment: "A true mystery — it'll keep you guessing 'till the end. Sherlock Holmes - look out!"

"Blazing Saddles"

Out in the wild western part of the school there stands a man of raw courage and steel, Jack Cline. Daily he faces threats placed upon his life by charging herds of students trying to learn to drive. He and his quick drawing partner, Gary Taylor, are also faced with the impossible task of keeping the students straight. But they have problems- Jean Wright, Mike Calhoun, and David Lee get the students so worked up during P.E. it's hard to tame them down again. How will they accomplish this impossible task- well, your guess is as good as mine! Rated R

Critic's Comment: "A chaotic film which sings outrageous shots at student-teacher relaionships by using smart cracks, terrible puns, and trick photography."

"The Longest Yard"

Faced with the challenge of a lifetime, the debonaire Jerry Wilhoite (drool, drool!) had to find a new way to get across the "Binomial Theorem" to his unwilling students. After assembling the team of math wizards, Christine Atwood, Elizabeth Hutchinson, Lela Hulette, Sherry Scherkoske, Al Wink, and Nancy Finney, they were ready to tackle any problem. But now it was time for the game and all were ready for the kick-off. With all the "logical procedures", the teachers were ready for a bloody battle. Rated R.

Critic's Comment: "A bloody mess but quite enjoyable as long as you're a spectator in the stands!"

True Grit

A hilarious story starring Betty Thurman, Carolyn Mason, Aden Leathers as ever-en-during secretaries who show "True Grit" by putting up with demands thrust upon them by teachers, phone calls for those checking in and out, and all the other general, insane things that occur daily at FCHS. Rated PG.

Critic's Comment: "A little cussing, a lot of violence — but what a comedy!!!"

I'm Not A Child Anymore Cars and toys, we pulled on strings, Little boy and little girl things, Fire breathing dragon's wings, Were clipped by mother's arms.

Ice cream cones could make our day, But ice cream has gone away Replaced by fillet mignon, Fairy tales by a rock-and-roll song.

Tomatoes on the vine grow up to be as red as wine; And we no longer play the games of a child, No more walking in wonderland. We must begin to understand This great big world that's so very free and wild. And, God, this is my prayer tonight Open my eyes so I can see the light, Cause I'm not a child anymore.

Mommy and Daddy changed to Dad and Mom, The Junior High dance to the Senior Prom, And, you know, it wasn't very long Till we were dancing to the Senior Song.

We found there's something better than Saying, "gee, I hope I can."
Now I know what I'm not and what I am, Today I'll say I can do it, cause today I'm a MAN.

Pudge Farrell

Being the one and only Bicentennial Class to graduate from FCHS was not the only thing which separated us from any other class. Do you realize that FCHS was built in 1958, which was the same year the majority of the Senior Class was born? We were the last class to have started here as freshmen, spending four years in high school instead of three. Our class was the largest to graduate and had one of the highest grade point averages in the history of FCHS.

Jeff Noel was the only student to serve three consecutive years as president of a class. G.B. Day was the first male at FCHS to be selected as the "DAR Good Citizen." Also, Randall Farrell was the first to compose a song specifically for the Senior Class. And don't forget the female tuba players; all of whom were seniors!

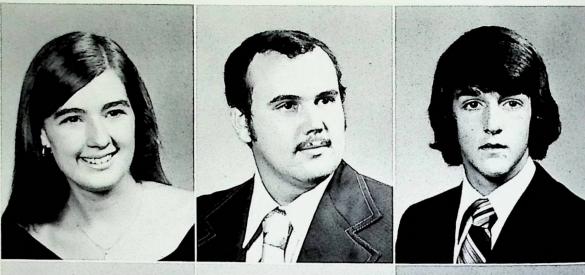

Song: "I'm Not a Child Anymore" Flower: Yellow Rose Colors: Royal Blue and Gold

— a week-long bakesale — two booths at the Happening — roses for teachers — ticket give away for rock concert — another bake sale — charity work —
